Dear Cousins,

Welcome to our new members and to all, happy new year!

We thought it important to rush out this issue of the newsletter and encourage you to plan now for this year's reunion in Alaska. You will see in the article by our host, Kathryn Kennedy, that she has done a lot of thinking about it. She has crafted a wonderful program designed to give us a real exposure to our wild and beautiful northern frontier. As Kathryn emphasizes, August is the height of vacation and tourist season, so this is the time to make your reservations. I urge you to participate in what promises to be a uniquely memorable reunion. As for me, I am already in touch with Kathryn's travel agent and laying plans for the Kenai Peninsula and a post-reunion trip to Denali National Park.

See you in Ninilchik!
